Scruggs, will arrive in Columbia on the following evening. Singers of other churches are cordially invited to join in the song service. Hymns both old and new will be practiced on every Tuesday evening after prayer meeting.

CHAS. W. CAMPBELL DEAD.

The death of this excellent young man was not a surprise to his friends of Columbia, as they had been advised for ten days of his serious condition, his little family, brothers and sisters having no hope.

The end came Saturday afternoon about 6 o'clock at his late residence near Eunice, this county.

He was a victim of stomach and lung trouble, and was sick several months. The deceased was engaged in the mercantile business when his life work ended. Several years ago he was married to a daughter of Mr. I. C. Harmon, and was a loving husband. The deceased was a son of the late John Campbell, who was a prosperous Green river farmer in his life time. Besides the wife the deceased is survived by several brothers and sisters, among the number being Mr. John M. Campbell, merchant at Pellyton. The funeral services were held Monday, and after the religious ceremony the Masonic Fraternity took charge of the remains, depositing the same with the usual formalities. Charley Campbell was about thirty years old, and enjoyed the confidence and respect of all the people with whom he was acquainted.

Peace to his memory, sympathy for the sorrowing wife and other members of the family.

The advertisement of Mr. W. L. Grady, of Gradyville, Ky., appears in another column, under a true picture of his famous stallion, Jordan Peacock. Every year Mr. Grady calls attention to the importance of breeding to secure the best grade of horses, such animals as will command a good price anywhere and under all circumstances. The pedigree of Jordan Peacock is submitted and those familiar with high bred horses will recognize and appreciate the popular strains of blood carried by this beautiful horse. As an individual the many blue ties he has won throughout the State are evidence of his style, beauty and performance. The high price paid for his colts is sufficient evidence of his worth as a breeder. In this section Jordan Peacock is known and needs no comment but to those outside our county who desire beauty, style and substance in the make-up of a sire, one bred in the purple, then they should see the above named stallion. Mr. Grady has every reason to feel proud of his horse and the people of this county admire the good judgment, persistent determination of Mr. Grady in advancing the grade of stock in this part of the State.

JOHNSON-COLEMAN.

Last Thursday afternoon, in the presence of quite a number of relatives and friends, Mr. W. F. Coleman, of Nashville, Tenn., was married to Miss Laura N. Johnson, a popular young lady, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson, this county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. C. Sandidge, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. The groom had made frequent trips to Adair county and was well known to Mr. Johnson's family. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for the home of the groom.

There was not a more deserving young lady in Adair county than Miss Johnson and she has the best wishes of a great many admiring friends.

Mr. J. P. Clayton, of Creelsboro, reached Columbia last Friday morning. He reported that the oil excitement in his locality was running high. The Worcester Company, of Pittsburg, Pa., drilling in the Irish Bottom, struck oil Wednesday night, bringing in a gusher. The oil rose fifty feet above the derrick, and a tank with a capacity of two hundred and fifty barrels was filled in one hour. This strike has stimulated oil men in that section and many more wells will be put down. This well is regarded as valuable as the one that came in, near Burksville, and which burned for many days.

A great many have called to see our new machinery and to give us a word of encouragement for our enterprise, all of which we highly appreciate. Our latch-string hangs on the outside and we cordially invite every one to visit the News office on Tuesday and see our Cranston Press and folder do the work. It is no imposition to crowd us a little. We enjoy company and appreciate your coming. This machinery is propelled by a "Jack of all trades," Gasoline engine, and is fully up to the demands.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Carrie Powell, who died at Lebanon, Tenn., were held in the Methodist church, this city, last Thursday afternoon. The church was crowded with relatives and friends who sorrowfully listened to words of condolence by Revs. T. L. Hulse, F. E. Lewis, S. G. Shelley, Prof. Harry Weir and Rev. W. H. C. Sandidge. Prayer was offered by Rev. A. L. Mell and the song service was conducted by Eld. Z. T. Williams.

Monday was county court day and a good crowd was in town. Business in every line was splendid and especially in the sale of stock. Thirty-five head of horses were sold ranging in price from $100 to $200. The merchants were busy all day and tired at night. The News enjoyed its patronage and tendered thanks to those who called and contributed cash.

Your note and account is due and I need the money. I have waited for you to call and settle, and if you do not call at once you may expect a personal dun or a statement please call and settle.

W. L. Walker.

To the citizens of Adair county: The undersigned are in the tombstone business at Campbellville, Ky.
